

Join S.C. Commerce and the U.S. Business Administration (SBA) for Navigating Economic and Supply Chain Shifts!

In today's fast-changing economy, adaptability and local sourcing are essential for long-term success. "Ready, Set, Supply!" is designed to help South Carolina small businesses grow, adapt, and lead. Join SBA experts for an interactive session focused on equipping SC's small businesses to navigate economic shifts and realign their supply chains.

This event will provide critical insights on:

- SBA's Made in America Manufacturing Initiative
- Federal contracting and certifications
- Capital access
- Onshoring trends
- Exporting opportunities
- Resources to support growth and competitiveness
